

SCHEDULE C.¹

[See section 25 (4).]

That portion of the roadway known as the Marshag Road which, commencing in Holkat Bay at a point 1,945 feet in a direct line south by west from the centre of the arch on the east side of the south Pass Gate or Draw-bridge, extends thence to a total length of 5,100 feet to the Marshag Light-house.

THE GUJARĀT TALUQDĀRS' ACT, 1888.

CONTENTS.

PART I.

PRELIMINARY.

SECTIONS.

1. Short title.

2. Definitions.

Expressions defined in the Bombay Land-Revenue Code.

Meaning of " taluqdār " in Part II.

3. [Repealed.]

PART II.

SURVEY AND SETTLEMENT.

Revenue survey.

4. Government may direct survey of a taluqdāri estate.

Settlement register.

5. Settlement register of a taluqdāri estate, what to contain.

Determination of disputes.

6. Disputes concerning matters which have to be recorded under section 5 to be determined by Survey-officer.

Custody and amendment of records.

7. Settlement-records by whom to be kept ; and to be from time to time corrected.

8. Bar of suits against Government, etc., to set aside decisions under section 6 or 7 ;

but effect to be given to decrees obtained by parties inter se.

9. Changes in records to be communicated to parties affected thereby.

¹ Sch. C was added by s. 7 (2) of the Aden Port Trust Act (Amendment) Act, 1895 (Bom. Act I of 1895), infra.